EX LIBRIS

THE SENIOR CLASS
of
BIGLERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
presents the
NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-FOUR
M I R R O R

FOREWORD

Spring, summer, autumn, winter —
How quickly the seasons fly! For one brief moment
We are caught in their whirl and then cast aside.
Yet as the seasons, so pass the years. And these Fleeting moments become memories . . .

In this yearbook we have tried to recapture the highlights of the past months — the joys and sorrows, the laughter and tears — and present them in a way which will make this year last forever in our hearts.

DEDICATION

There have been many people throughout our lives who have contributed much in making us the individuals we are, and to whom we are indebted—our teachers, our ministers, our friends. Many times, those who deserve the most credit receive the least. We are taking this opportunity to show our appreciation to our parents, who have undoubtedly exerted the most profound and lasting influence on our lives. Through their patience, guidance, and unselfish acts of love, they have instilled in us a sense of right and wrong. They have been understanding and tolerant advisors when we were troubled, and the standards they have set for us will last throughout our lives.

It is with our most sincere and deepest love and appreciation that we, the Class of 1964, dedicate this, our yearbook, to our parents.

ALMA MATER

Biglerville High School we are bringing our gifts of homage due.
With songs and praises ringing, our debts we owe to you;
Other high schools have their colors, which are loved by young and old,
But the noblest and the fairest are Biglerville's black and gold.

When we enter life's great battle, and high school days are o'er
We will think of thee and love thee as ne'er we've done before.
Our hearts will surely linger, our lives will ever tell,
We love thee, Alma Mater, true-hearted Biglerville.

ADVISOR

Mr. Donald Ernst

Only those who have had the experience of preparing a yearbook realize the great amount of work involved in its production. Without the experience and good judgement of our advisor, Mr. Donald Ernst, this publication would not have been possible. Thank you, Mr. Ernst, for your time and your willingness to assist when called upon.

Advisor

In looking back over the past years, we realize how fortunate we have been to have had Mr. William L. Coradetti as our advisor. Through his patience, guidance, and initiative, we were able to successfully complete many class projects which not only kept us working together as a unit, but strengthened our ties of friendship.

Our sincere thanks to you, Mr. Coradetti, for your time and understanding, and most of all for your faith in us.

Mr. William L. Coradetti

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

1960 - 61

As very energetic Freshmen, we, the class of 1964, plunged enthusiastically into the first of many steps toward gaining the coveted title of "Seniors". Under the able leadership of President Carol Crum and Mr. Coradetti, our advisor, our class opened a new frontier to raise money for our Senior Trip by picking apples. We also sold wrapping paper and stationery, participated in a variety of clubs, and visited the Adams County Courthouse.

1961 - 62

The year 1961-62 again found our class in the apple orchards; we also sold candy at football and basketball games and bought a new speaker's stand for the auditorium. As lively "Sophomores" we chose a new type of class ring, which will be the standard style in BHS rings until 1968. Ray Van Dyke was elected president of the class.

1962 - 63

An excited Junior class presented a unique Junior-Senior Prom to the graduating Seniors. Before going to the Gettysburg Country Club, where we Juniors had prepared a "Wonderland by Night," those who wished attended a dinner held at the Lamp Post Tea Room. To pay for our prom, we once more had picked apples and sold hot dogs at football games. During this year we received our class rings, for which we as a class had chosen the black onyx setting. Once again we chose Ray Van Dyke to lead us.

1963 - 64

With happily beaming faces and slightly nostalgic hearts, we began our final year at Biglerville High School. Each Senior (including our President, Ray Van Dyke) crammed his schedule with activities, such as the Senior Play, the Girls' Football Game, and the selling of cokes, soft pretzels, coffee, and hot chocolate; and we all pitched in to pick apples once again. We were thrilled about staying an extra day in New York City so that we could attend the 1964 World's Fair; and we were all certainly anxious about our forthcoming graduation. Yet, though each and every Senior was proud to be a Senior, not one of us wanted to say good-bye to our Alma Mater. And so, we do not say good-bye, or farewell, but hello — hello to brighter hopes for a successful future in a world in which we will be the leaders.

With this in mind, we, the Class of 1964, wish to express our sincere and grateful thanks to the dedicated teachers of Biglerville High School for the help they have given us. It is our hope that future classes will experience the happiness we have known here at Biglerville.

And now we march ahead, confident and hopeful, into a world of tomorrows, filled with new experiences, new friends, and old and cherished memories.

ODE TO THE SENIOR CLASS

The Class of Sixty-Four
Is not the class to boast,
But here are some achievements
Which we remember most.

We started picking apples
To make our treasury full,
And soon the plan was followed
By every class in school.

Our Junior-Senior Prom
Was not held at the school.
We held it at the Country Club
Beside the swimming pool.

We bought a speakers' stand
For use upon the stage.
It's to replace the other one
That's old and worn with age.

We had a senior play
Called "Onions in the Stew".
It was performed quite well,
And we made a profit too!

We got a standard ring
That suited everyone.
We hope it will continue
When this contract is done.

We sold a lot of cokes
And hot dogs at the games.
Although it meant hard work,
We did it just the same.

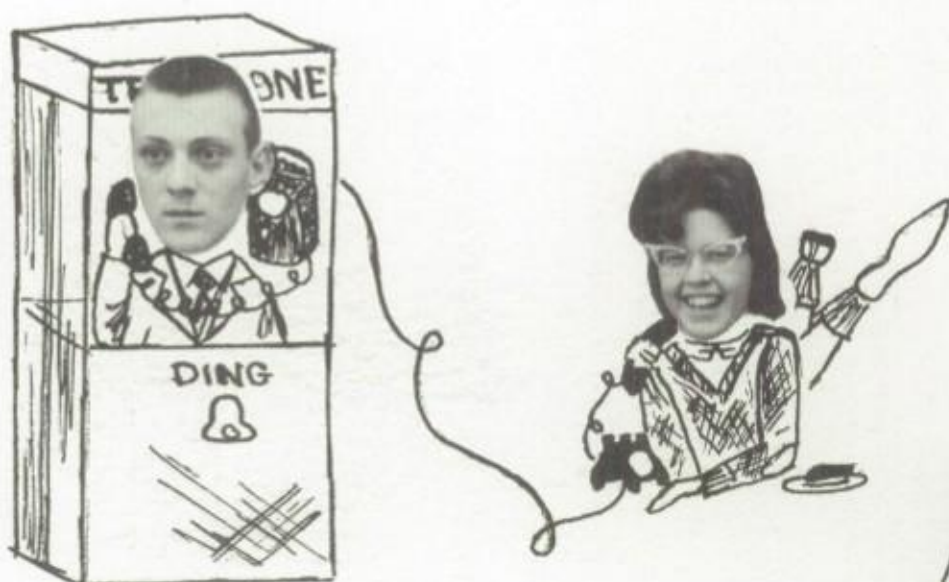

Our athletes were outstanding
In almost every sport.
The school will surely miss them
When we pull out of port.

We also had our stars
In senior choir and band.
Whenever we performed,
We always got a hand.

We owe our great success
To President Ray Van Dyke.
He's the kind of person
That anyone would like.

Now our school days are over,
And dear friends have to part,
But we hope we've left an imprint
On everybody's heart.

"THIS WAS THE YEAR THAT WAS"

"One of the most amazing things about the stars is that the nearest star is over four light years away and can only be seen in the southern hemisphere."

"What was the name of the guy who used to play Tarzen in the movies?"

This short dialogue is an example of the change in wave lengths experienced by the Seniors while adjusting themselves to the usual daily school routine.

The halls are filled with sleepy-eyed students who supported the previous night's athletic event. Most students arrive piled with books, band instruments, and gym bags. The senior hall becomes crowded about 8:20 with the class couples and talkative Seniors discussing the day's schedule.

By 8:30 sharp the beau's have escorted their girls to homeroom, the homework is completed by other Seniors, and eventually everyone settles into their seats for the morning exercises.

The clanging 8:35 bell sends the Seniors forward to their first period class. The student temperament varies according to the day of the week. For instance, morning doldrums frequent Mondays and Tuesdays, reoccurring before the week-end on Fridays. Good humor is maintained by athletes and fans when the teams are winning.

Slowly the morning classes are ended and the activity period is initiated with the instrumental end of the music program monopolizing most of the Seniors' time during the fourth period. Other Seniors act as library assistants, office assistants, or indulge in a club activity.

At the magical hour of 12:00 noon the BHS Freeway becomes a menace to safety as the mad dash to the cafeteria occurs. Inside, an aroma of Mrs. Sheat's specialty of the day can be sniffed. Seniors group together and hash over the up-to-date gossip, learn spelling words, and consume food. Before passing on to the freeway again a stop is made at the ice cream cabinet to munch an ice cream delight. All this pandamonium takes place in a third of an hour.

The last half of the fifth period is either spent in choir testing the vocal chords, in the gym practicing with the basketball, or in study hall testing the mental powers.

Throughout the school day several teachers have pet phrases which help to instruct the pupils, such as, "Look in any sixth grade math book!" or "Run, don't walk, to the nearest dictionary!" When a senior answers "28.875" and the correct answer is 28.876, a certain Algebra teacher may reply, "close, but no cigar." Not very often do the Seniors step out of line, but when they do, statements such as these are heard, "O.K., Brough, five demerits!" or "Shut the yap, yap back there."

A typical school day would never be complete without the flavoring of the business office with all types of Senior personalities such as our forward class president visiting with the administration every last period (How do you do it, Ray?), the commercial gang helping in the office over the lunch hour, and the many Seniors visiting the guidance department in trying to decide future plans.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

CARLOS PIZARRO

This past school year has been an exciting one for Carlos, Biglerville's foreign exchange student. Carlos, who lives in Valparaiso, Chile, with his parents, three brothers, and a sister, arrived in Harrisburg on September 4, where he met his American parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Robert Smith.

Attending a "co-ed" school is a new experience for Carlos. In Valparaiso, he is a student at an all-boys school called "Eduardo de la Barra". There Carlos studied English for six years.

Among the many things Carlos enjoys, his favorites are sledding, snow, his "mother's" fried chicken, photography, and basketball games. Carlos also loves to dance, and has become an accomplished "twister".

As a member of the Senior Class, Carlos is taking English, American history, P.O.D., economics, biology, and typing. Carlos will return to Chile in August, after taking a tour of parts of the United States, along with other foreign exchange students.

CAROL HOUCK

For Carol the summer of 1963 was an unforgettable experience. She was Biglerville's American Summer Exchange Student to Finland. Leaving the States by boat on June 26, Carol arrived at Rotterdam, Holland, on July 6. After traveling through Europe for two days, she met her "family", Mr. and Mrs. Toimi Ahva and their daughters, Ulla, 18, and Anneli, 20, at Kuopio, a city in the center of Finland's Lake District.

Part of Carol's summer was spent at her "parents'" summer home, 25 miles from Kuopio. There Carol picked wild berries, swam, hiked several miles to the grocery store and post office almost daily, and took stimulating saunas. On September 9, she arrived in New York.
